Report On Carroms

Siva Sivani Degree College conducted Carroms competition on 23-06-2018 in seminar hall of the college premises. Carrom, also known as finger billiards, has a rich history rooted in the Indian subcontinent, with its earliest recorded history dating back to the 18th century. Over the years, this classic table top game has gained popularity worldwide, with enthusiasts forming clubs, organizing tournaments, and contributing to the evolution of the game.

In an event organized at Siva Sivani Degree College, 40 students actively participated in the Carrom competition. The event was successfully organized by Keshava Giri, showcasing the widespread interest and engagement in this traditional game within the college community.

Carrom's enduring popularity lies in its accessibility, making it a game that can be enjoyed by people of all ages and skill levels. The strategic and competitive nature of the game fosters camaraderie and friendly competition among players. The efforts of Keshava Giri in organizing the Carrom event reflect the college's commitment to providing diverse recreational activities for its students. Such events contribute to the vibrant and inclusive atmosphere at Siva Sivani Degree College, emphasizing the timeless and universal appeal of Carrom as a game that brings people together for friendly competition and enjoyment.

Report On Plyometrics

Siva Sivani Degree College conducted Plyometrics game on 18-08-2018 in college playground. In an event organized at Siva Sivani Degree College, 15 students actively participated in plyometric exercises. The event, successfully organized by Mary Madhavi, highlights the college's commitment to providing students with diverse opportunities to engage in fitness activities that enhance athletic performance.

Plyometrics, with its emphasis on explosive movements and the utilization of the stretch reflex, stands as a valuable component of athletic training. The stretch reflex involves a rapid lengthening and contracting of muscles, contributing to the generation of maximal force in a short amount of time. When incorporated judiciously into training regimens, plyometrics can lead to significant improvements in power, strength, and agility. The participation of 15 students in the plyometrics event underscores the interest and enthusiasm among students for incorporating dynamic and explosive movements into their fitness routines. Mary Madhavi's efforts contribute to the promotion of a holistic approach to fitness, emphasizing the importance of power and agility in athletic training.

FACE PAINTING (07-08-2018)

Face painting is a form of artistic expression where non-toxic paints are applied to the skin, typically the face, to create temporary designs or images. It is a popular activity at various events such as parties, festivals, fairs, and carnivals, providing a fun and creative way for individuals to express themselves or enhance their appearance.

The process of face painting involves the use of special face paints, which are formulated to be safe for the skin. These paints are water-based and easily washable, making them suitable for temporary applications. Professional face painters often use high-quality paints that are vibrant, hypoallergenic, and specifically designed for use on the face.

REPORT

MOCK INTERVIEW (20-09-2018)

Women empowerment is not just a women's issue; it is a societal issue that benefits everyone. By empowering women, societies can tap into a broader talent pool, foster economic growth, and build more inclusive and equitable communities. Ultimately, women empowerment is about recognizing and dismantling the barriers that limit women's potential, allowing them to thrive and contribute fully to the betterment of society.

COLLAGE COMPETITION (20-02-2019)

A collage is a form of art that involves combining different elements, such as photographs, cutouts, text, and other materials, to create a unified and visually striking composition. Collages can be created on various surfaces, including paper, canvas, or digital platforms. Artists use collage as a medium for expressing creativity, telling stories, or making statements. The juxtaposition of diverse elements in a collage often results in a unique and dynamic visual experience.

Women's day celebrations

International Women's Day is an occasion to celebrate the progress made towards achieving gender equality and women's empowerment but also to critically reflect on those accomplishments and strive for a greater momentum towards gender equality worldwide. It is a day to recognize the extraordinary acts of women and to stand together, as a united force, to advance gender equality around the world.
