Report on Orientation Day Program

The Orientation Day Program for newly joined faculty, led by IQAC coordinator and resource person Mr. Y. Ananda Reddy, took place on 15/03/2023 from 10 am to 1 pm. The session aimed to acquaint the new faculty with department heads and familiarize them with the college's culture, methods, and procedures.

Objectives of the Program:

- Introducing the institution's vision, mission, and history.
- Exploring the challenges and opportunities.
- Familiarizing new faculty with the college culture.
- Sharing teaching and learning techniques.
- Initiating resourceful strategies.
- Discussing the institution's standards.
- Elaborating on evaluation and examination systems.
- Guiding on developing rapport and communication.
- Highlighting faculty endeavors and incentives.
- Introducing the faculty supporting system for research and publications.
- Providing an overview of CRT classes.

Outcome of the Program:

Participants gained knowledge about the institution's history, vision, and mission, understanding the path for student development, faculty support, and adopting modern technology. The program covered ongoing teaching-learning practices, evaluation systems, and fostering growth alongside the institution. IQAC coordinator Mr. Y. Anada Reddy effectively communicated the federation's hierarchy and the role of faculty members.

Conclusion:

The Orientation Day Program proved highly beneficial, productive, and enlightening, covering pertinent topics essential for every newly joined faculty member.
