"Helping Hands" Charity by SSDC

Commencement and Initiatives:

Continued Efforts Amidst the Pandemic:

In 2020, despite pandemic challenges, students persisted in various activities such as road paintings and wall paintings. In 2021, efforts extended to collecting used clothes, stationary items like notebooks, pens, pencils, and essential food items for those in need.

In 2022, students actively advocated charity initiatives, designating every Tuesday as Charity Day. The committee coordinated fund collection, and the raised funds were utilized to purchase necessary items for orphanages and old age homes, fulfilling their requirements. Even students helped the children whose parents got affected by AIDs.

Students Take Home: Students demonstrate commendable participation in rendering services as they distribute groceries, food items, snacks, stationary, books, pens, pencils, writing pads, and clothes every Tuesday.

Siva Sivanians, recognize, practice concern for the underprivileged. It has been our culture to consciously indulge in practices that help us to reach the poor, the orphans and old age homes. We instill the same spirit in our students, to show empathy, sympathy to those who need our help. Once we recognized this cause, we educated our students on how to set aside some money which could be donated to the poor. This contribution, though a negligible one to each student will be a big help to the affected.

We, Siva Sivanians, practically extended this activity into wings and approached an orphanage and some old age homes. We feel Tuesday as very auspicious and considered the same as bestow and planned to donate something as a charity for this cause, four lecturers were coordinators, these lecturers inspired the students to share and contribute to the society from the sum of their pocket money and help the needy as a part of the same, each student donated some amount as charity. These were collected by our lecturers along with the student representatives and visited few old age homes and orphanages and It is an appreciable effort by our students in recognizing how to serve and contribute to the society in different ways and how to stir up to concern in students as an institution. This institutional concern is a central force to propel youth towards the future.

Four lecturers were coordinators, they inspired the students to share and donate items like 300 Biscuit Packets. These were collected by our lecturers along with student representatives and donated to the needy. It is an appreciable effort by our students in recognizing how to serve and contribute to society in many ways and how to stir up to concern in students as an institution. This institutional concern is a central force to propel youth towards the future.

Brief description about the event:

Siva Sivanians, recognize, practice concern for the underprivileged. It has been our culture to consciously indulge in practices that help us reach the poor, the orphans. We instill the same spirit in our students, to show empathy, sympathy to those who need our help. Once we recognize this cause, we educated our students on how to set aside some money which could be given to the poor. This contribution, though a negligible one to each student will be a big help to the affected.

We, Siva Sivanians, practically extended this activity into wings and approached an orphanage. Four lecturers were coordinators, they inspired the students to share and donate items like 300 Biscuit Packets. ## PROGRAM REPORT

Date: 16-03-2023

1. Name of the Program: COMMUNITY SERVICES
2. Program Date: from 15-03-2023
3. Report submitted date: 16-03-2023

Brief description about the event:

Siva Sivanians, recognize, practice concern for the underprivileged. It has been our culture to consciously indulge in practices that help us reach the poor, the orphans. We instill the same spirit in our students, to show empathy, sympathy to those who need our help. Once we recognize this cause, we educated our students on how to set aside some money which could be given to the poor. This contribution, though a negligible one to each student will be a big help to the affected.

We, Siva Sivanians, practically extended this activity into wings and approached an orphanage . Four lecturers were coordinators, they inspired the students to share and donated 'Fruits'. These were collected by our lecturers along with student representatives and donated to the needy. It is an appreciable effort by our students in recognizing how to serve and contribute to society in many ways and how to stir up to concern in students as an institution. This institutional concern is a central force to propel youth towards the future .
