COMMUNITY SERVICES "Helping Hands" Charity by SSDC

Commencement and Initiatives:

Continued Efforts Amidst the Pandemic:

In 2020, despite pandemic challenges, students persisted in various activities such as road paintings and wall paintings. In 2021, efforts extended to collecting used clothes, stationary items like notebooks, pens, pencils, and essential food items for those in need.

In 2022, students actively advocated charity initiatives, designating every Tuesday as Charity Day. The committee coordinated fund collection, and the raised funds were utilized to purchase necessary items for orphanages and old age homes, fulfilling their requirements. Even students helped the children whose parents got affected by AIDs.

Students Take Home: Students demonstrate commendable participation in rendering services as they distribute groceries, food items, snacks, stationary, books, pens, pencils, writing pads, and clothes every Tuesday.

Siva Sivanians, recognize, practice concern for the underprivileged. It has been our culture to consciously indulge in practices that help us to reach the poor, the orphans and old age homes. We instill the same spirit in our students, to show empathy, sympathy to those who need our help. Once we recognized this cause, we educated our students on how to set aside some money which could be donated to the poor. This contribution, though a negligible one to each student will be a big help to the affected.

We, Siva Sivanians, practically extended this activity into wings and approached an orphanage and some old age homes. We feel Tuesday as very auspicious and considered the same as bestow and planned to donate something as a charity for this cause, four lecturers were coordinators, these lecturers inspired the students to share and contribute to the society from the sum of their pocket money and help the needy as a part of the same, each student donated some amount as charity. These were collected by our lecturers along with the student representatives and visited few old age homes and orphanages and It is an appreciable effort by our students in recognizing how to serve and contribute to the society in different ways and how to stir up to concern in students as an institution. This institutional concern is a central force to propel youth towards the future.

PROGRAM REPORT

Date 30-09-2023

1. Name of the Program: COMMUNITY SERVICES
- 2 Program Date: 29-09-2023
3. Report submitted date: 30-09-2023

Brief description about the event:

Siva Sivanians, recognize, practice concern for the underprivileged. It has been our culture to consciously indulge in practices that help us reach the poor, the orphans. We instill the same spirit in our students, to show empathy, sympathy to those who need our help. Once we recognize this cause, we educated our students on how to set aside some money which could be given to the poor. This contribution, though a negligible one to each student will be a big help to the affected.

We, Siva Sivanians, practically extended this activity into wings and approached an old age homes. Four lecturers were coordinators, they inspired the students to share and donate a sum from their pocket money and purchased 25 kgs rice Bags- 06 These commodities were collected by our lecturers along with the student representatives and visited the old age home and donated the commodities. This, is an appreciable effort of our students in recognizing how to serve and contribute to the society in different ways and how to stir up to concern in students as an institution. This institutional concern is a central force to propel youth toward the future.

Brief description about the event:

Siva Sivanians, recognize, practice concern for the underprivileged. It has been our culture to consciously indulge in practices that help us reach the poor, students from the back ground of govt schools. We instill the spirit in our students, to show empathy, sympathy to those who need our guidance. Once we recognize this cause, we educated our students on how to share their knowledge to the poor people which could encourage their learning skills. This contribution, helps each student to be a good citizen

We, Siva Sivanians, practically extended this activity into wings and approached government schools and conducted an activity named Knowledge sharing and donated 35- Colour chats, Colour papers- 25 and stationery items required for chats. Where Children Will Be Aware Of Societal Problems Like Good Touch And Bad Touch. and How to be a Responsible citizen in the society etc prepared the charts related to the topic and explained clearly with the helps of the charts and clarified doubts of the children by creating friendly atmosphere. This, is an appreciable effort of our students in recognizing how to serve and contribute to the society in different ways and how to stir up to concern in students as an institution.
