INFORMAL GAMES

SNO	INFORMAL GAMES: GAMES, CULTURAL AND COMMUNITY SERVICES	OBJECTIVE
1	Rangoli	The objective of creating rangoli is primarily artistic and cultural. Rangoli is a traditional Indian art form where vibrant patterns are created on the ground using colored powders, rice flour, or flower petals. The practice is often associated with festivals, celebrations, and special occasions
2	Dancing	The objective of dancing is multifaceted, encompassing artistic expression, cultural preservation, physical exercise, and emotional release. Dancing allows individuals to convey emotions, stories, and cultural traditions through movement.
3	Singing	The objective of singing is diverse, covering artistic expression, emotional communication, cultural preservation, and personal enjoyment. Singing allows individuals to convey emotions and tell stories through the modulation of voice.
4	Best out of waste	The objective of "best out of waste" is to promote creative and sustainable practices by utilizing discarded or unused materials to create something new and useful. This concept encourages individuals to repurpose items that would otherwise be considered waste
5	Face painting	The objective of face painting is often to enhance artistic expression, celebrate events, and create a sense of fun and joy. In various contexts, face painting serves as a form of creative embellishment during festivals, parties, or cultural events

6	Pumpkin show	The objective of a pumpkin show is typically to celebrate the autumn season, showcase a variety of pumpkins, and provide entertainment and enjoyment for the community.,
7	Fancy dress competition	The objective of a fancy dress competition is to provide a platform for creativity, self-expression, and entertainment. Participants, often children, dress up in costumes that represent various characters, themes, or concepts.
8	Painting	The objective of painting varies based on the artist's intent, but common goals include expressing emotions, conveying a message, capturing beauty, telling a story, or exploring creativity and imagination.
9	Slow bike racing	The objective of slow bike racing is to navigate a marked course at the slowest possible speed without touching feet to the ground. It tests riders' balance, control, and precision rather than speed. The last participant to cross the finish line without violating the rules is often declared the winner
10	Short movie making	The objectives of making a short film can include storytelling, conveying a specific message or theme concisely, showcasing creativity and technical skills, engaging the audience emotionally, experimenting with cinematic techniques, and potentially serving as a stepping stone for filmmakers to demonstrate their talent in a condensed format.
11	Community service	The objectives of community service typically include fostering a sense of social responsibility, contributing to the well-being of the community, addressing local needs, building a sense of unity and connection among community members, and creating positive social change. Community service aims to make a positive impact on individuals and the community as a whole.

BUSINESS MODEL DESCRIPTION

Event Name: Business model

Event Description:

A business model is a comprehensive framework that outlines how a company creates, delivers, and captures value. It encompasses various elements such as the product or service offered, target customer segment, revenue streams, cost structure, and overall strategy. A well-defined business model helps clarify how the business operates and generates profit. It serves as a roadmap guiding key decisions, fostering sustainability, and ensuring alignment with the organization's goals. Successful business models adapt to market dynamics and enable companies to remain competitive and profitable.

Objective of the Event:

The objective of a business model is to outline the framework for how a company creates, delivers, and captures value

Outcome of the Event:

A well-designed and effectively executed business model can lead to profitability, growth, and sustainability, while shortcomings may result in financial challenges or failure. Continuous adaptation to market dynamics is crucial for long-term success

AD-MAKING DESCRIPTION

Event Name: Ad making

Event Description:

Ad-making, or advertising creation, involves the strategic development and production of content with the goal of promoting a product, service, or idea. It is a creative process that combines visual, auditory, and written elements to capture attention, evoke emotions, and persuade the target audience. Advertisements are crafted to communicate key messages effectively, often utilizing storytelling, imagery, and compelling narratives. The objective of ad-making is to create engaging and memorable content that leaves a positive impression and motivates the audience to take a desired action, such as making a purchase or adopting a specific behavior.

Objective of the Event:

The objective of ad making is to create compelling and persuasive content that effectively communicates a product, service, or idea to a target audience. Ads aim to capture attention, generate interest, create desire, and prompt action

Outcome of the Event:

The effectiveness of an ad depends on factors like targeting, creativity, messaging, and the platform used. A successful ad should resonate with the target audience, convey a compelling message, and prompt the desired action. Regular analysis of ad performance metrics helps refine strategies for better outcomes.

BEST OF WASTE DESCRIPTION

Event Name: Best of Waste

Event Description:

"Best out of waste" refers to a creative and sustainable practice where individuals transform discarded or unused materials into new and useful items. This concept encourages resourcefulness, environmental consciousness, and artistic expression. By repurposing materials that might otherwise be considered waste, individuals contribute to reducing their ecological footprint and promoting a more sustainable lifestyle. The process involves innovation and imagination to turn everyday items into aesthetically pleasing or functional creations, showcasing the potential for creativity and environmental responsibility in everyday life. Overall, "best out of waste" represents a commitment to both artistic ingenuity and environmental stewardship.

Objective of the Event:

The objective of "best out of waste" is to promote creative and sustainable practices by utilizing discarded or unused materials to create something new and useful. This concept encourages individuals to repurpose items that would otherwise be considered waste

Outcome of the Event:

The outcome of "best out of waste" projects is the creation of useful or artistic items from materials that might otherwise be discarded. This approach encourages creativity, resourcefulness, and environmental consciousness. The result can be unique and functional objects, decorations, or artworks, showcasing the potential for repurposing materials and minimizing waste.

FACE PAINTING DESCRIPTION

Event Name: Face painting

Event Description:

Face painting is a lively and artistic form of adornment where designs, colors, and patterns are applied directly to a person's face. Typically done with skin-safe paints or makeup, face painting allows for a creative transformation, turning faces into canvases for imaginative expression. Commonly seen at festivals, parties, or events, face painting provides an enjoyable and interactive experience for both children and adults. Artists often craft designs ranging from whimsical characters to intricate patterns, contributing to a festive and celebratory atmosphere. Beyond the aesthetic appeal, face painting serves as a form of entertainment, encouraging individuality, and adding a splash of color to special occasions.

Objective of the Event:

The objective of face painting is often to enhance artistic expression, celebrate events, and create a sense of fun and joy. In various contexts, face painting serves as a form of creative embellishment during festivals, parties, or cultural events

Outcome of the Event:

The outcome of face painting is a temporary, visually captivating transformation of a person's face. Face painting is often used for artistic expression, entertainment, or special events. It can evoke joy, creativity, and a sense of playfulness. The result varies from simple designs to intricate artworks, and it allows individuals to express their personality or participate in themed activities such as festivals, parties, or theatrical performances.

FANCY DRESS DESCRIPTION

Event Name: Fancy dress competition

Event Description:

A fancy dress competition is a lively and entertaining event where participants, often children, dress up in imaginative costumes to showcase creativity, individuality, and a sense of fun. These competitions are commonly organized in schools, community events, or festive occasions. Participants choose costumes representing various characters, themes, or concepts, ranging from fictional heroes to historical figures. The objective is to celebrate diversity and encourage self-expression in a playful environment. Judges often evaluate participants based on costume creativity, presentation, and how well the costume aligns with the chosen theme. Fancy dress competitions contribute to a festive atmosphere, fostering a sense of joy, creativity, and community engagement.

Objective of the Event:

The objective of a fancy dress competition is to provide a platform for creativity, self-expression, and entertainment. Participants, often children, dress up in costumes that represent various characters, themes, or concepts.

Outcome of the Event:

Students are enlightened with unity in diversity concept of our nation and to develop respect to each state cultural representation and the same develops patriotism towards the country.

SLOW BIKE RACING DESCRIPTION

Event Name: Slow bike racing

Event Description:

Slow bike racing involves participants navigating a marked course at an intentionally slow pace. Riders showcase exceptional balance and control as they maneuver through obstacles without putting their feet on the ground. The objective is to maintain the slowest speed possible while staying within the course boundaries. This unique form of racing emphasizes precision and skill over speed, providing a challenging yet entertaining experience for both participants and spectators.

Objective of the Event:

The objective of slow bike racing is to navigate a marked course at the slowest possible speed without touching feet to the ground. It tests riders' balance, control, and precision rather than speed. The last participant to cross the finish line without violating the rules is often declared the winner.

Outcome of the Event:

The outcome of slow bike racing is determined by the participant who successfully completes the course with the slowest speed without violating any rules, such as touching feet to the ground. Winners showcase exceptional balance, control, and precision. The event often emphasizes the skillful navigation of obstacles and the ability to maintain stability at minimal speeds. The outcome is both entertaining for onlookers and a testament to the participants' mastery of bike handling in challenging conditions.

SHORT MOVIE MAKING DESCRIPTION

Event Name: Short movie making

Event Description:

Short movie making involves creating a film with a condensed runtime, typically ranging from a few minutes to around 30 minutes. Filmmakers aim to tell a compelling story, convey a specific message, or explore themes creatively within the constraints of a shorter format. The process includes scriptwriting, cinematography, acting, and editing, with an emphasis on concise storytelling and impactful visuals. Short films provide a platform for filmmakers to experiment, showcase their skills, and deliver a meaningful narrative in a relatively brief timeframe.

Objective of the Event:

The objectives of making a short film can include storytelling, conveying a specific message or theme concisely, showcasing creativity and technical skills, engaging the audience emotionally, experimenting with cinematic techniques, and potentially serving as a stepping stone for filmmakers to demonstrate their talent in a condensed format.

Outcome of the Event:

The outcome of short movie making is a concise audiovisual narrative designed to captivate and convey a story, message, or creative concept within a limited timeframe. This form of filmmaking allows for experimentation, artistic expression, and the exploration of various cinematic techniques. The result is a brief yet impactful piece that can entertain, provoke thought, or evoke emotions, showcasing the filmmaker's skill in storytelling, cinematography, and editing. Short films offer a versatile platform for both emerging and established filmmakers to make a meaningful impact in a relatively condensed format.

COMMUNITY SERVICE DESCRIPTION

Event Name: Community service

Event Description:

Community service involves individuals volunteering their time and skills to benefit a community or a specific group within it. Activities may include assisting local organizations, participating in cleanup initiatives, supporting charitable events, or providing aid to those in need. The essence of community service lies in contributing positively to the well-being and development of a community, fostering a sense of social responsibility, and creating a collective effort to address local needs. It is a selfless act that can strengthen community bonds and promote a culture of giving back.

Objective of the Event:

The objectives of community service typically include fostering a sense of social responsibility, contributing to the well-being of the community, addressing local needs, building a sense of unity and connection among community members, and creating positive social change. Community service aims to make a positive impact on individuals and the community as a whole.

Outcome of the Event:

The outcome of community service is multifaceted. It often results in tangible benefits for the community, such as improved infrastructure, enhanced public spaces, or assistance to individuals facing challenges. Additionally, community service fosters a sense of unity, social responsibility, and civic engagement among participants. Individuals involved often experience personal growth, increased empathy, and a broader understanding of community issues. Ultimately, the collective impact of community service extends beyond immediate improvements, contributing to the overall well-being and resilience of the community.
