INTRODUCTION

Failure is a common and inevitable part of life. We all experience setbacks, disappointments, and mistakes in our personal and professional endeavours. But how we react to failure determines our future success. Instead of giving up or feeling discouraged, we can view failure as a valuable opportunity to learn, grow, and improve. Failure is not the end of the road, but the beginning of a new journey. Failure is a stepping stone to success.

Human life is a series of tests. It is pervaded with successes and failures which are its different aspects. We can fail in our effort at one time and succeed at the next. The proverb 'Failures are the stepping stones of success' means failures are a normal process of life and should be made the stepping stone to success. Failures should not discourage us. Those who fail once should try again and again. When we fail once, we have gained some experience. We must utilize our experience to get success in our next effort.

We should learn from our mistakes that we made last time and attempt once again. Should we fail again, we should continue to learn from it and make our next attempt. This should continue until success has been achieved finally. No number of failures should deter us to achieve success.

Experience makes us wiser. This is the foundation stone of success. Success depends upon motivation, wisdom and self-confidence.

CHARTS

When we fail, we ought to analyse the causes of our failure. Only a fools think that success is easy. Confidence is good. But over-confidence is bad. Confidence gives us strength over-confidence makes us easy-going. Complacence makes a man over-confident and careless. A man who thinks that he is too clever and intelligent may also fail. A person will fail because he gets nervous and confused. A person who fears failure will more likely fail. Such a man is defeated from within so he is bound to fail.

Success in life demands certain mental qualities. First, we must be hard working. We have to try for success. Secondly, we should have courage. We must have the will to succeed we should not accept defeat as our destiny. We shall lose the battle of life if we feel defeated. We have to accept the challenge with determination and courage. Of course, failures upset us at times, but we must have determination. We must have desire for victory in life. When we fail, this proverb should give us confidence and encouragement.

ACTIVITIES

As we went to the govt school and interacted with the students on the topic "Failure is the stepping stone to success"

We conducted some games so that they could have fun and also gain some knowledge about the topic. As students pay more heed to interesting topics and activities, we choose to conduct 3 kinds of games which are an individual activity, dual and a group activity.

We conducted group activity because it could bring teamwork among the students from now. The activities we conducted are puzzles, memory activity and speaking skills. We provided gifts for dual and group activities and chocolates individually to the whole class.

Conclusion

1. Write down Your Goals

The first thing you do in the morning will determine what your day is going to be like. Program your mind to be in a powerful state from the moment upon waking, and you are guaranteed to have a productive and great day.

How you can do this is by writing your goals down, every morning. Then, once you've done that, circle the most important goal, the goal that in the long-term will have the most impact on your life.

This is an extremely powerful method of getting in the right state first thing in the morning. Instead of wandering around half-dead and spending 30 minutes to wake up, you are hacking your mind to be productive.

2. Create a Powerful Belief System

If you don't believe in yourself, why would anyone else?

When people ask you about your goals in life, don't be afraid to say it out loud. If you have high goals, they might laugh and look at you funny. But if you're insecure about your goals, you will make insecure decisions that will lead you nowhere.

Go against the grain, stand out. After all, how many people in the world today are actually living the dream? Now, how many of these people will respond something in the likes of "I don't know" if you ask what their goals are?

The first step to living and achieving your dream is to believe it and imagine it. When you believe in your mind that you've already achieved your goals, you will develop a sense of certainty. That certainty will lead to action steps, when you know what the outcome is going to be it's much easier to pick out the actions that are necessary to get there.

3. Invest in Yourself

Some things you can do today to invest in yourself are:

Study at least one hour a day. "One hour per day of study will put you at the top of your field within three years. Within five

Manalathap
PRINCIPAL
Siva Sivani Degree College
Kompally, Medchal-Malkajgiri (Dt)-500100

years you'll be a national authority. In seven years, you can be one of the best people in the world at what you do." – Brian Tracy

Take notes. Never leave home without a pen and a piece of paper. The best ideas often comes in the least appropriate times, write them down. Don't trust your mind to remember them—it won't. Writing it down right away will also allow your mind to store and come up with more ideas. Nowadays, you can use plenty of notes-taking apps like Evernote.

Learn a new skill. Learn something new every day, a new skill or a new word. One new skill every day equals 365 new skills a year. Now imagine where you could be a year from now if you start doing it today?

Do something for yourself. Yes, hard work is a major factor for succeeding, but at least once per month do something fun, something outrageous and spontaneous that makes you feel alive. Have fun and enjoy yourself.

MOTIVATION

- Motivation is the main driving force behind an action.
- Motivation is the reason why a person wants to be successful.
- When it comes to motivation, knowing is not as important as doing .
- Certainly, you need some intelligence, knowledge base, study skills, and time management skills, but if you don't have motivation, you won't get far.

Risking you may end up better than you expect

If you take the risk then people will follow you.

Risk can be calculated

NEVER GIVE UP

- Every overnight success you've heard about likely has another side to the story, like the burning desire of founders to succeed and countless days/nights spent working.
- Successful people learn to love the process as much as the outcome and stay committed to their vision through thick and thin.

Content

I explained the first and second slide of the presentation

It includes the topic of the presentation and the meaning of success

I first started the presentation by asking all the students in the class about their future goals. Almost all the students had a certain goal they wanted to achieve

Advancing from there, I explained that achieving that goal is the only way to achieve success in life

Games

We conducted a game called Scribble

I took the responsibility to making sure all the students understood the rules of the game and also made sure they were in their best discipline

I was friendly with students to make them comfortable with us since we have not spent much time with them

Scribble is a game based on drawing on a board. We first divided the class into groups and called one person from each group and asked them to make their teammates to figure out a word from just their drawing

Activity

We conducted a general knowledge quiz of 30 questions

I played the role of explaining the rules to a few groups we made in the class

We conducted three rounds to finalise a winner team

I also took the responsibility of motivating the students in the class

INTEGRITY

1. INTEGRITY

INTEGRITY IS DEFINED AS BEING STRONG ENOUGH TO DO WHAT YOU KNOW IS RIGHT. INTEGRITY IS ALSO KNOWING THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN RIGHT AND WRONG AND CHOOSING TO DO THE RIGHT THING, EVEN WHEN IT IS DIFFICULT.

A. Moral values

- i. Moral values include being honest, kind, showing respect to others, helping others, having a sense of self control, treating everyone equally and imbibing other such good qualities. A person possessing such qualities is known to bear a good moral character. On the other hand, those who do not possess such qualities are looked down upon by the society. Moral values include being honest, kind, showing respect to others, helping others, having a sense of self control, treating everyone equally and imbibing other such good qualities. A person possessing such qualities is known to bear a good moral character.
- ii. Moral values are the key components of a person's character. It guides people to make decisions and judgements. It gives them a sense of what is right and wrong. Moral values can vary from person to person depending upon this upbringing, and the environment they are raised in.

B. HONESTY

WHAT IS HONESTY?

Honesty means always telling the truth and being truthful in everything you do. It means not lying, cheating, or stealing. Instead, it's about being sincere and straightforward.

Honesty means telling the truth and being truthful in everything you do. It's important to be honest with your words and actions, even when it's hard. When you're honest, people can trust you, and it helps build strong friendships. So, always remember to be truthful and honest in your daily life!

WHY IS HONESTY IMPORTANT?

1. Trust: When you're honest, people can trust you. They know that you won't say things that aren't true or deceive them. Trust is the foundation of good friendships and strong relationships

Mamathap

PRINCIPAL

Siva Sivani Degree College
Kompally, Medchal-Malkajgiri(Dt)-500107

2. Responsibility: Being honest also means taking responsibility for your actions. If you make a mistake, admitting it honestly is a way to learn from it and grow.

3. Respect: Honest people are often respected by others because they have integrity. Integrity means doing what's right, even when no one is watching.

4. Good Feelings: When you're honest, you feel good about yourself. You don't have to worry about keeping secrets or hiding the truth.

Examples of Honesty:

Imagine your teacher asks if you finished your homework, and you didn't. Being honest means saying, "I didn't finish it, but I'll do better next time," instead of making up an excuse.

If you accidentally break something at home, being honest means telling your parents what happened, so you can work together to fix it.

When playing a game with friends, being honest means not cheating or changing the rules to your advantage.

Honesty implies being truthful. Honesty means to develop a practice of speaking truth throughout life. A person who practices Honesty in his/her life, possess strong moral character. An Honest person shows good behavior, always follows rules and regulations, maintain discipline, speak the truth, and is punctual.

C. RESPECT

Giving and receiving respect from others is important because it helps us to feel safe and to express ourselves.

Being respected by important people in our lives growing up teaches us how to be respectful toward others. Respect means that you accept somebody for who they are, even when they're different from you or you don't agree with them. Respect in your relationships builds feelings of trust, safety, and wellbeing. Respect doesn't have to come naturally – it is something you learn.

We need to respect our elders teachers and everyone in the society. Because we can gain respect only when you give respect so give respect and take respect.

We must learning giving respect even for people who are working under us . They are working and living there life independently we need to respect them for there age and hard work .

D. Courage

Courage is a special quality that can help you do amazing things, even when you're a little scared.

What is Courage?

Mamathap

PRINCIPAL
Siva Sivani Degree College
Kompally, Medchal-Malkajgiri(Dt)-500100

Courage is like having a brave heart. It means being willing to face your fears and do what you think is right, even when it's not easy. It's like having a superhero inside you, ready to stand up for what's important.

Examples of Courage:

Facing Fears: Imagine you're scared of the dark, but you need to turn off the lights in your room at night. Having courage means taking a deep breath and doing it, even when you're scared.

Speaking Up: Let's say you see someone being bullied at school. Courage is when you stand up for that person and tell a teacher or a grown-up, even if you feel a little nervous about it.

Trying New Things: Have you ever tried something new, like riding a bike without training wheels? Courage is when you take that first wobbly pedal, even if you're afraid of falling. Admitting Mistakes: Sometimes, we make mistakes. Having courage means saying, "I'm sorry, I was wrong," and trying to make things right. It takes bravery to admit when you're not perfect.

Why Courage is Important:

Courage is important because it helps you grow and become stronger. When you face your fears, you learn new things and become better at handling challenges. It also helps you stand up for yourself and others, making the world a better place.

E. Gratitude

The quality of being thankful; readiness to show appreciation for and to return kindness. Gratitude is like a magical power that can make our lives happier and our hearts fuller.

What is Gratitude?

Gratitude is a fancy word for saying "thankfulness." It means feeling thankful and appreciative for the good things in your life, both big and small. It's like having a heart full of thanks!

Why Gratitude Matters:

1. Brings Happiness: When you're grateful, you notice all the good things around you. This makes you feel happier and more positive.
2. Strengthens Relationships: Saying "thank you" and showing gratitude to others helps build strong friendships and connections. It makes people feel valued and loved.
3. Helps During Tough Times: Gratitude can be like a warm blanket on a cold day. When things are tough, remembering the good things in your life can give you strength and hope.

Mamathap

PRINCIPAL

Siva Sivani Degree College
Kompally, Medchal-Malkajgiri(Dt)-500100

4. Makes You Mindful: Gratitude helps you pay attention to the present moment and appreciate what you have right now, instead of always wanting more.

Ways to Practice Gratitude:

Thank You Notes: Write thank-you notes to people who have helped you or made you happy. It could be your parents, teachers, or friends.

Gratitude Journal: Keep a journal where you write down three things you're thankful for each day. This helps you focus on the positive.

Say Thank You: When someone does something nice for you, say "thank you" with a smile. It shows your appreciation.

Help Others: Sometimes, the best way to show gratitude is by helping others. When you lend a hand, you're saying thanks in action.

F. Kindness

Kindness is like a special superpower that can make the world a better place and brighten people's days.

What is Kindness?

Kindness is all about being nice, helpful, and caring toward others. It's about treating people the way you would like to be treated. Kindness is like a warm hug for the heart!

Why Kindness Matters:

Spreads Happiness: When you're kind to someone, it makes them happy, and it can make you happy too! It's like a ripple effect of joy.

Builds Friendships: Being kind helps you make friends and keep them. People like to be around others who are friendly and caring.

Stops Bullying: Kindness is like a superhero cape against bullying. When you're kind, you stand up for those who need help and make sure no one feels left out.

Makes the World Better: The more kindness there is in the world, the better it becomes. It's like planting seeds of goodness that grow into something beautiful.

Ways to Practice Kindness:

Smile: Something as simple as a smile can brighten someone's day. Smiling is a small act of kindness.

Help Others: Offer help when you see someone struggling, like picking up dropped books or holding the door for someone.

Use Nice Words: Speak kindly to others. Compliments and encouraging words can make a big difference.

INTEGRITY

MORAL VALUES

Moral values are defined as guidelines that assist a person in deciding between right and wrong. They help us being a better human.

RESPECT

Respect is a moral value that is the basis of a happy, healthy and fulfilled life. It is a two way process that means a person can get respect when he respects others. Receiving respect from others is important because it helps us to feel safe and to express ourselves.

HONESTY

Honestly, speaking and acting truthfully, is more than not lying, deceiving, cheating or cheating. It entails showing respect towards others and having integrity and self-awareness. It gives us hope, confidence, compassion, and improves decision-making.

COURAGE

Courage gives you the ability to put aside your fear or failure and take the first step. Courage helps you overcome the fear of rejection and engage your stakeholders. Courage allows you to attempt things that you have not tried before, despite your fear of looking foolish.

GRATITUDE

Gratitude is a conscious, positive emotion one can express when feeling thankful for something, whether tangible or intangible. Gratitude implies much more than showing good manners. It's a practice that requires acknowledging someone else's gesture towards us or the things that are going well in our lives.

KINDNESS

Kindness is defined as the quality of being friendly, generous, and considerate. Kindness is a value that gives us a feeling of happiness and satisfaction. Our elders and ancestors have also taught us to be kind to the people around us.

show you care.

Use eye contact when talking to my teacher.	Listening to my parents when they ask me to do something.	Give the waitress eye contact when we place our order.
Say thank you to the cooks while at lunch.	Not arguing with my siblings when we disagree.	Listening to my mom when she says no to buying a candy or toy.
Raise my hand when I want to share something.	Sit and listen to adults talk when they are over.	When at the park and mom says it's time to go - I listen.

VIRTUAL REALITY

TIME :11:00 -11:40 (By Aayan)

The main aim of this activity was to make the children aware of the changes occurring in the educational system as the learning in upcoming year will be done with the help of VR.

VIRTUAL REALITY

WHAT IS IT?

Virtual Reality (VR) based learning is an immersive educational approach that uses VR technology to create realistic, interactive, and three-dimensional learning environments. It offers several benefits.

- VR can transport learners to virtual worlds, making lessons more engaging and memorable.
- VR allows learners to practice in safe, controlled environments, reducing risks.
- Complex concepts can be visualized and understood better in VR.

Mamathap
PRINCIPAL
Shiva Sivani Degree College
Kompally, Medchal-Malkajgiri (DI)-500100

- Learners can interact with objects, scenarios, and simulations, promoting active learning.

Videos shown on the VR box were regarding:

- Solar system: as it gave them an immersive experience about how the planets rotate in the solar system.
- Moon: it helped them in knowing how the atmosphere of moon is different from earth's atmosphere

Conclusion:

Overall, VR-based learning has the potential to revolutionize education by making it more engaging, effective, and accessible. As technology continues to advance, VR is likely to become even more integrated into education. This could involve more interactive AI driven virtual tutors and realistic stimulations .

STORY

Time :11:40 – 12:00 (By Sushmitha Raj)

Story telling

Story telling is an effective way of educating moral values and discipline to children which will be engraved in their hearts

The simple way of explaining a moral story to the kids can be fun and thought sowing

We shared a very simple short stories of the

1)the boy cried wolf

2)the three pigs

The first story explains how telling a lie can have consequences and the second story explains about how hard work pays off..

The children were wise enough to extract the essence of both the story which helped them to understand the stories .

GOOD HABITS AND BAD HABITS :

Time:12:00 to 1:00 (By Sanjana, Hashitha)

Good Habits And Bad Habits :

In this we prepared a chart of good habits and bad habits and explained them what to do and what not to do . With few examples and some pictures. And told them to habituate good things rather than bad habits like daily study routine, helping others, respect elders etc. And to stop fighting with their friends, skipping meals .

Healthy food and junk food :

We told them what are healthy food and junk food and explained them the effects of eating junk food and told them what food to be consumed and what they should stop eating.

At last based on this we conducted a activity to differentiate between good habits and bad habits , and healthy food and junk food .

ACTIVITY ROUNDS

Time :12:30 to 1:00

1.Sequential round :

In the sequential round we gave bundle of sheets which contained good habits , bad habits ,good food and bad food and called 4 students in each round and to make them separate in less span of time every student in the class had participated and gave their best and the one who done without interruption and in less span of time had got a gift.

Game rules :

Need to separate the good food and junk food

Who finishes the game in less time by keeping everything correct wins the match

And we gifted them student kit .

2. NUMBERING GAME :

In numbering game we called out 8 students the game rules are simple :

1. They will be saying the numbers 1,2,3 ..., and we will choose one table instead of that number they need to say one movie dialogue or else make any animal sound .

Example: 5 table we choose so then 1 , 2 , 3 , 4 and a movie dialogue or animal sound and then 6,7,8,9 .....

We conducted this game so that 1 students will not get bored and they will stay focused.

3. Focus

In this round we called around 4 pairs in each round. We explained them how to play when we say knee they have touch their knee , whatever we say they have to touch it at last we said to pick up the ball between them , the one who picked it fast played again with other participant at last the one won the game . They enjoyed playing this game .

This game we conducted so that we can understand how quick they can react and respond correctly.

FEEDBACK

FIRST SESSION(12PM-1PM)

ABOUT KNOWLEDGE SHARING:

Knowledge sharing is an activity through which knowledge (namely, information, skills, or expertise) is exchanged among people, friends, peers, families, communities (for example, Wikipedia), or within or between organizations.

IMPORTANCE:

Sharing knowledge helps them connect, perform better, and become stronger as professionals. Some examples of advantages of knowledge sharing for your organization is that you can save money on

2.FOOD HABITS:

Food habits are the things we regularly eat and drink. Good food habits help us stay healthy and strong.

IMPORTANCE:

A healthy diet is essential for good health and nutrition. It protects you against many chronic noncommunicable diseases, such as heart disease, diabetes and cancer. Eating a variety of foods and consuming less salt, sugars and saturated and industrially-produced trans-fats, are essential for healthy diet.

15 HEALTHY EATING HABITS THAT WORK

1. Eat fruits and veg.

Get vitamins, antioxidants, and fiber from fruits and vegetables. Aim for a variety of colors. Eat at least five servings a day.

2. Exercise every day.

Exercise helps maintain a healthy weight, improves circulation, and keeps your heart and lungs healthy.

3. Drink your water.

Staying hydrated helps your body regulate its temperature and keeps your skin healthy.

4. Eat foods with protein and fiber.

Protein and fiber help you feel full and keep your blood sugar stable.

5. Be Mediterranean.

Mediterranean diets are rich in fruits, vegetables, and whole grains, and low in saturated fats.

6. Eat healthy fats from fish, nuts, and seeds.

Healthy fats help reduce inflammation and improve heart health.

7. Be mindful.

Eating mindfully helps you enjoy your food and recognize when you're full.

8. Use your gut microbiome.

Probiotics and prebiotics help maintain a healthy gut microbiome.

9. Drink alcohol in moderation.

Excessive alcohol consumption can lead to liver disease and other health problems.

10. Choose whole grains over refined grains.

Whole grains are high in fiber and nutrients, while refined grains are high in calories and low in nutrients.

11. Get a good night's sleep.

Quality sleep helps regulate your appetite and metabolism.

12. Eat breakfast.

Breakfast sets the tone for your day and helps prevent overeating later.

13. Don't snack after dinner.

Snacking after dinner can lead to weight gain and poor sleep.

14. Limit salt intake.

High sodium intake can lead to high blood pressure and heart disease.

15. Don't go hungry.

Skipping meals can lead to overeating and poor decision-making about food.

-Balanced diet
